TWIN CITY PEOPLE MEET TO DISCUSS ORGANIZATION FOR CIVIC UPBUILDING

Well Attended Conference Held
At The Albany Chamber Of Commerce

ANGLES OF QUESTION
TALKED OVER AT LENGTH

Expected Much Good Will Result From the Public Conferences

At a well attended mass meeting of citizens last night at the Chamber of Commerce a number of representative men went on record without equivocation as favoring any movement that would tend to broaden and cement our people into a commercial body that would insure concert of action industrially of Albany-Decatur.

The proposed organization of a community commercial body composed of the citizens was argued from many angles, and while no definite conclusion was reached, it was evident that a large number of those present favored the organization of such a body. While there was some disposition on the part of a few to discourage the proposed movement, no active determination to oppose was voiced.

The earnestness of the speakers evidenced the desire on the part of all to do the best possible thing for our community, and while there may be many ideas as to what is best to be done and the best way to do it, it is predicted that out of these meetings good will come and a harmony brought to this community that will benefit and tend to develop our great possibilities. Emphasis was placed by some speakers on the "watchful waiting" of which our people have indulged to some extent—awaiting developments in this great Tennessee Valley by those coming from afar—and it was urged that those who are here should get busy and help themselves, reference being made to what the Good Book has to say on this line.

A meeting of all members of the Albany Chamber of Commerce has been called for Monday evening, Nov. 27, at 7:30 o'clock, when it is hoped a full attendance will be present in order that this matter may be gone into and a decision reached.

Miss Edith Reed Returns to Home

Miss Edith Reed, of New York, secretary of the International Health Board, left this morning for her home, after a visit to the Twin Cities, in the interests of the public health movement in this county. Miss Reed's organization contributes some funds to the general health work throughout Alabama. She recently visited Andalusia, and Montgomery, and came on here on her way to New York. Dr. B. F. Austin showed the distinguished visitor some of the things being undertaken in Morgan County for better health conditions, and explained the plans of the county health unit. The visitor expressed herself as favorably impressed with the fight against disease being made in Morgan County.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Fire was discovered this morning at the residence of H. G. Drake, 605 7th Avenue, West Albany, and was extinguished by the fire department before any damage of consequence was done. A defective flue is given as the cause of the fire. This fire occurred at 9:15 this morning.

Last night at 7:10, due to a spark, a fire broke at Hubbard residence, 1401 5th Avenue, South Albany. No damage done, according to reports at the fire department. One other fire was marked up for yesterday at the Matlock Building, on Second Avenue. This fire was due to a defective flue, and some of the woodwork was so badly damaged that it had to be removed.

Claudia Muzio & Ottavio Scotto, wife.

When Ottavio Scotto, impresario of the Chicago Opera Company, returned to America on the same ship as Mlle. Claudia Muzio, soprano of the same company, his wife, Mme. Carmelina Scotto, announced that she had instructed her attorneys to sue Mlle. Muzio for $125,000 for alleged alienation of affections and also to sue for separation from her husband. Mme. Scotto makes no charges against Mlle. Muzio's enviable reputation.

CHURCHES PREPARE FOR THANKSGIVING SERVICE THURSDAY

Preparations are being made among the churches of the Twin Cities for their special Thanksgiving services to be held Thursday morning. The plan to be followed is for certain groups of churches in the two cities to unite on that day in one service. In Decatur churches will hold their services at the First Methodist Church and the sermon will be preached by Dr. James E. Wallace, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. In Albany a number of churches will join in the service at the Westminster Presbyterian Church, where the sermon will be preached by Dr. G. T. Harris, pastor of the Central Methodist Church.

Special Features Tomorrow.

Among the churches tomorrow, as a general rule, none other than the regular preaching services are scheduled. But some churches have special programs. At the Central Baptist Church Dr. W. P. Wilks will preach a sermon, having reference to his five years' work in that church, and this discourse will come at night.

Dr. James A. Duncan will preach a sermon to young people at the First Methodist Church Sunday night. At the Westminster Church Dr. L. F. Goodwin, the pastor, stated that Rev. Dr. Holt, of New York, would be in attendance, and would be expected to speak at the morning service.

The choir of the First Baptist Church of Decatur will give its regular monthly recital Sunday night.

At this church as at all the Baptist churches of the Southern Baptist Convention, "Loyalty Week" begins tomorrow. Committees will be named among the men to work among the men, and women will be selected to work among the women of the church for funds to meet the obligations of the church outside of pastors' salaries and local expenses.

Rev. W. P. McGlawn, presiding elder, will preach at the Southside Methodist, at 11 o'clock, and the new pastor, Rev. A. L. Mathison, will occupy the pulpit at the evening service.

SOLDIERS CONTINUE PROBING DISORDERS IN MAGIC CITY AREA

(Associated Press.)

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 25.—Military authorities were today continuing an investigation into recent disorders in connection with the railroad strike in the Birmingham district and additional arrests were expected.

Seven men, arrested late yesterday, were held on charge of flogging railroad employees during the last six weeks. Those under arrest are: Charles C. Moore, C. C. McGraw, E. T. Cox, G. M. Thompson, Martin Canble, M. James and R. A. Crunk.

Arrest of these men followed an alleged confession said by military authorities to have been made voluntarily by Sam Hayes, a negro, who yesterday asked Judge Hobbs to allow him to remain in the hands of the guardsmen when Hayes' wife asked his release under habeas corpus proceedings.

The right of the military to make arrests was upheld by the circuit court this week in injunction proceedings brought by counsel for men so held.

EARLY VESPER SERVICE.

Dr. Goodwin and his people of Westminster Church have changed the hour for evening worship to 5 o'clock for the winter months. Having found it so acceptable in the past, they adopt this plan again. Strangers and visitors are cordially invited to worship with the congregation. Remember the hour, 5 o'clock.

MRS. YOUNG DIES

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church at 2:30 for Mrs. Maggie Young who died at her residence on the Courtland pike. Interment will be made here. Mrs. Young is survived by two sons, W. E. and Jack Young; two daughters, Miss Ada Young and Mrs. Sidney Smith and sister, Mrs. M. H. Todd of Decatur and one brother Sam Harper of Alex Ok.

COURT FINISHES

The criminal term of the circuit court adjourned Friday afternoon, with the completion of the case of the state vs. Athens Aldridge. The court was an unusual busy one, much business being dispatched during the 9 days of the term. Owing to the fact of a recent grand jury holding in August, a small number of true bills were returned.

LUMBER INDUSTRY SHOWING REVIVAL; MORE BIG TRACTS BEING CLEARED UP

Numerous Morgan County Saw Mills Running At Full Capacity

MANY WAGONS BRING
PRODUCT TO THE MARKET

Fine Sales Reported In Twin Cities During Past Few Weeks

A great revival of the lumber industry is being noticed on every hand in this county, and numerous country sawmills are running at capacity. Tracts of timber not hitherto touched are being cleared, and the saw stocks carried to the mills of the country, sawed into lumber and dressed, and sent to the markets of the country in various places.

A building activity is likewise noticeable over the country, as numerous dwelling houses and barns are being erected. The class of buildings now being built over the rural districts is decidedly better than those heretofore attempted, showing that the country in general is on the up grade, with more incentive to action than heretofore. These are encouraging signs, and with the other improvements over the county, there is every reason to believe that the country will take its place along with other progressive counties of the state and go on to even higher and bigger undertakings. Numerous wagons are seen daily in the Twin Cities, delivering to this market, where there is always a fine sale for this product, of various kinds of lumber, stave bolts and ties. The aggregate sales during a twelve-month period of this product from the forests of the county would amount to many thousands of dollars annually. This industry is carried on at a time when the farmer is practically done with the crops of the year, and this feature added to his activities in the crops and the revenues derived therefrom, do much to greatly increase the yearly earnings of the farmer. The various road projects now in progress over the county also give the farmers opportunity to keep their teams at work on the road, delivering crushed stone along the road, is another feature which adds considerable revenue to his earnings.

LIMESTONE WILL HAVE HEALTH UNIT

ATHENS, Ala., Nov. 25.—Special.—Announcement is made here that the county commissioners of Limestone County have voted to establish a county health unit, and to employ one or more physicians to look after the physical wellbeing of the people of the county. Since the legislature four years ago abolished the office of county health officer, this county has maintained no department of public health, and the orward step of the commissioners is greeted here with enthusiasm. The county health unit will devote its efforts and energy to preventive medicine, generally, and no effort will be made to do a general practice. The health officer will take over the physical examinations for men seeking marriage and will inoculate contagious diseases.

Hungry 'Possum Visits Hen House

A local chicken fancier who keeps a fair sized flock of chickens, was aroused one night this week by a terrible racket, the sound coming from his chicken house. Arising and going to a convenient door, opening toward the chicken roost, he resorted to strategy in order, as he believed, to coax the one who was making depredations on his chickens to come out without any trouble, and accordingly called out: "Come on out of my chicken house, you are caught."

This was repeated without any effect. Repairing back to his room, he secured his gun and a flashlight and went to the chicken house. To his astonishment he found a large possum, making its way along the roost pole toward his hens. He was promptly taken in charge, being captured alive, and probably some time there will be a baked possum at somebody's home, adorned with juicy yam potatoes.

Why a possum would leave the forests and come to a city in quest of food, is a mystery, unless tiring of persimmons, of which there is a large crop, he desired a change of menu.

Mercury Drops In Tennessee Valley

The mercury took a decided downward dip Friday night, and various observers of the tube on Saturday morning report varying degrees showing at that time, the difference perhaps being that some "were in more exposed places than others. Some report 22 above, others 27, 28 and 30. At any rate it was the coldest night of the present winter, and ponds were frozen over where the water was eddy. Much during the week had taken advantage of the fine weather prevailing through the week to butcher their pork hogs, with the finest conditions prevailing in which to guarantee its safety. It was noticed late Friday afternoon that the wind shifted to the northwest, and from that time on the mercury went on a sliding scale. Many automobile owners who did not anticipate such a decided change, were having all kinds of trouble with their engines, and in some instances, damage resulting therefrom.

PRISON INSPECTED.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 25.—Special.—Twenty members of the Montgomery Chamber of Commerce were furnished the surprise of their lives Friday when they were shown through Kilby prison by William F. Feagin, state warden general. They expressed astonishment that such an institution should be erected near Montgomery in so short a time and at such a small expense to the state. The delegation was headed by I. H. DeWees, president of the commercial organization, and those who attended represented the various lines of business in Montgomery.

BELGRAVIAN STRUCK BY NEW YORK BUT IT IS BELIEVED ALL ON BOARD WERE SAVED

Western Entrance of the Bosphorus is Scene of the Accident

PANIC REIGNED AMONG CHILDREN AFTER IMPACT

Allied Warships Dispatched Hurriedly to Render Aid to the Stricken

(Associated Press.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 25.—Two thousand Christian orphans and relief workers were in peril this morning when the steamship Belgravian chartered by the Near East Relief, collided with the trans-Atlantic liner New York at the western entrance of the Bosphorus. Allied ships, dispatched hurriedly to the scene, reported many of the children had been painfully injured but no lives were lost. Doctors and nurses were sent from the Near East headquarters here.

Reports received here declared panic reigned among children after the impact, which tore away the bridge and foremost of the Belgravian, smashed the life boats and loosened seven of the vessels plates. The steamer's wireless also was put out of commission.

School of Methods Brought To Close

The school of methods and inspiration, which has been in progress for the past week came to a close last night with an address by Dr. R. L. Creel, of Bridgeport. A special feature of this school was that it increased night by night and that the largest attendance was present the last night. Some came over from Florence, where they had attended a similar school and took the examinations given last night. Practically all of the over 90 students passed their examinations and were awarded diplomas. J. E. Lambden, who is the state secretary for the B. Y. P. U. and who, with Mrs. Lambden, holds such schools throughout the state, said on leaving for a similar work in Gadsden, that he had rarely witnessed greater enthusiasm among Bible students.

Biggest Potato Weighs 12 Pounds

R. Rolfe, residing on the Bee Line highway just out of Albany, lays claim to be the raiser of the largest sweet potato so far heard of in the county. Mr. Rolfe recently had his potatoes dug, and when he came to the hill containing this large one, a fork was secured, and the work of getting it out of the ground whole was commenced. According to Mr. Rolfe, it was something on the plan of digging a half bushel measure from the earth. When weighed it tipped the beam at 12-1-4 pounds. This is 2-1-4 pounds larger than the one recently brought to The Daily office. Four potatoes to the bushel, Morgan County soil puts po- in the potato.

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FOR HIS BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS

WHEN WE PROMOTE JOINTLY,
LATER ALL WILL SHARE ALIKE.

Conservation of effort and a united spirit are the greatest assets of any community. We must have united efforts and united hearts. In a time like our own, when everything moves in a big way or not at all, it will be impossible for great industries to be moved to these cities unless the largest possible pressure is brought to bear upon those who have great business enterprises. People who would desire to make this section their home, and their place for doing business, do not want to be assured that they will have great natural advantages and good transportation privileges, but they will want to know first of all what kind of a "spirit" prevails among the people of Albany and Decatur. Just as an ancient prophet was promoted to great authority and power "because of the spirit that was in him," so the business interests of this country place this section on the map of industrial promise and power if we get and hold the right spirit toward each other. Prospective neighbors and promoters of business will argue in their own minds "as the people of that neighborhood treat each other, so will they treat us when the new wears off and we become a part of the community."

They will say, however progressive we new comers may be, unless we go into a progressive neighborhood it will be only a question of time until we also drop into a rut of selfishness and narrow mindedness.

One organization working "one for all and all for one" would be freed from selfish and narrow considerations. It would be the business of such an organization to promote the interests of one locality the same as another. The needs and convenience of the industry seeking a place, would be considered first absolutely, and the thought of what particular property of business already here would profit most, would be far from a united organization of the far seeing and considerate citizens of this great community. All possibilities are in our hands. Will we make them probabilities, by all joining hands on a big industrial community organization? And when we have made a great future probable, it will be only a short time before such a future is assured, and after while it will be a practical reality—a blessing in which all can share alike.

THE PRESIDENT CONSIDERS THE INCIDENT OF BANISHING WHISKEY CLOSED.

The defeat of Andrew J. Volstead is being hailed by the "wets" as a repudiation of the entire prohibition program. Just why, the wets are claiming such a victory seems very far to seek, especially as the minister who defeated Volstead says he is dryer than Volstead ever dared to be. About the only way to explain the claim of the "wets" that Barleycorn will escape the jail of disgrace into which the people have cast him is on the ground that desire is forever eternally fathering opinions to suit himself, so to speak. Enough said along those lines. Whiskey will never be legalized.

There is an attempt being made now to draw the executive branch of the government into the so-called Volstead fight. It will fail as it should. The President, as the head of the executive branch of the government, has much bigger things to do than to slake the thirsts of a lot of whiskey lovers, or to help the "drys" punish the "wets." In fact the executive branch of the government has nothing to do with saying what the people want, or what their votes indicate. It is the business of the President and his law enforcement officers to carry out the laws as enacted by the legislative branch of the government. It is no affair of the President, whether the people change their attitude toward whiskey or not—at least not until the people through their representatives, have given Mr. Harding different laws to enforce in regard to whiskey.

In case the executive branch of the government, felt that more enabling acts were necessary to make the Volstead act enforceable, it would be the duty of that branch to ask for additional legislation—but under no circumstances is it the place of the executive branch of the government to take to initiative in an effort to weaken the laws that support the 18th amendment to the constitution.

In case it were proven beyond a doubt that we could not enforce the 18th amendment—but such is not the case by any manner of means—it might become the duty of the President to so inform the Congress, just as a matter of information and advice. Besides the President and his advisors will not tamper with the whiskey issue—as it is loaded—and anybody knows it, especially men like the President of the President of the United States, whose business it is to keep in touch with public sentiment. As long as it is impossible to get almost any man to take the side of whiskey, openly, it is not likely that the head of the executive department of the government, can be inveigled into "monkeying" with the John Barleycorn question.

Time, that tragic span in which the destinies of individuals and nations either rise and fall, is no respecter of persons. Records are made; destinies carved; progress or retrograde movements birth in its span; heroes are made and heroine born; pages of history written, and is the only time in which all these can be accomplished. Now valueless the most of us estimate this most important phase of our life. How we pass it and pass with it as just a matter of course, when all the centuries which have gone before, have given birth to and made it the most promising field for endeavor ever held within the grasp. As it passes we pass with it, and the efforts which we make carve the destinies which we must face when time with us ceases.

A TRAIN OF THOUGHTS FOR SABBATH AND OTHER DAYS

By J. E. Blair

There was a busy man—long since dead—who is reported to have whipped his tired mind and body through hard tasks with a drink of whiskey now and then. He found the poison left him worse off than ever. He asked his county people to help him vote whiskey out. They promptly refused to do so. On election night when his people had refused prohibition, he said with heat and conviction: "Well, there is nothing hindering me from taking it for myself"—and he did.

When we try and try to get our neighbors to do "right" and they won't, there is nothing preventing us from doing a little self reforming. Let us begin with physical reform. The Christian Science people have done a real service in that they have given great prominence to physical culture. Soul culture is no more important than physical culture. At least it is just as wrong to break a physical law as it is to break the ten commandments. And we will cite scripture to our purpose. Third John 1-2 says: "Beloved, I wish in all things, that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth."

Dr. Lyman Abbott young and busy at 87 when he died, said of a Christian Physician: "He impressed me with the truth that the laws of health are as much the laws of God as the 10 commandments and that it is as truly a sin to violate the laws of health as to violate the 10 commandments. He enlisted my conscience on the side of my physical well being, and made food, exercise rest and bathing as sacred a duty as reading the Bible going to church and prayer."

That Rev. Dr. Abbott did a lot of physical reforming goes without saying when we read that he "was exceptionally slight and delicate in his early college years and suffered from a distinct handicap because of his frailty."

If anybody should ask why is physical culture important reply to them: "Our debts to God are payable to His creatures, but if we are physical bankrupts, we can never pay that debt to God." Until the religious significance of bodily health is recognized, soul culture now in its infancy, will stay there! Until we are able to lift the physical and intellectual loads divinely laid upon us—and it takes a sound body to support a sound mind and a strong arm—mankind will continue to live in the low grounds of sorrow! And finally there comes that terrible searching Bible query—"Know ye not that your bodies are the temples of the Holy Spirit?"

Morgan-Lawrence Game Here Ends in Squabble in Final Quarter, Score 6-6

The Morgan-Lawrence football game ended here yesterday afternoon in the middle of the fourth quarter with the score 6-6 when the teams squabbled over a decision of Referee Gibbons on a play by virtue of which Hartelle had just scored her second touchdown. All bets were declared off. It is possible the teams may arrange to play the game over here later in the season.

Hardin was the Moulton team's shining light on the offensive. Byars ran him a close second. In fact the Lawrence backfield proved to be one of the strongest seen here in several seasons. Hartelle's line was crippled by the absence of George Tomlinson, her crack fullback, but the team fought harder yesterday than it did in previous contests. Ellison and Captain "Red" Thompson were the Hartelle satellites.

The game was marred by squabbling throughout the contest. Matters came to a head, however, in the fourth quarter. Moulton had just taken the ball in her own territory and Fullback Hardin dropped back as if to punt. The pass from his center was low, however, and he never seemed to get a good grasp on the ball. The Hartelle forwards came charging through and a fumble resulted. Captain Thompson picked the pigskin up and ran for a touchdown. In the meantime Referee Gibbons, for some reason, had blown his whistle, and the play was called back. Spectators surged around the protesting players in the field and the game never was resumed.

The game in detail:
Line-ups:

Jones	l.e.	Sims
Thompson	l.t.	Gentry
Ratliff	l.g.	Harris
Stevenson	c.	Burgiss
Chenault	r.g.	Young
Bean	r.t.	L. Harris
Johnson	r.e.	Shelton
Burleson	q.	Free
Ellison	h.b.	Sandlin
Nelson	r.h.b.	Byars
Hartelle	f.b.	Hardin

Referee, Gibbons; umpire, Eggers.

First Quarter.

Moulton kicked to Ellison, who returned 30 in a pretty dash. Hartelle slipped off tackle for 6. He hit the same spot again for 1 and Ellison made first down around his own right end. Burleson made 2, Hartelle 2 and Ellison 3 in a trio of bucks, but Ellison failed to make first down. Free fumbled but recovered. Free hit the line for 6. Byars crashed through or 3 more. Free was stopped with a two-yard advance and the ball went over. Hartelle went around his own left end for 8. Ellison made it first down in one buck. Hartelle hit the line for 6 in one smash and two in a second. Ellison and Hartelle were stopped and Moulton took the ball on her own 10-yard line. Shelton kicked 45 yards out of bounds in the middle of the field. A pass was grounded and a triple pass was executed. Moulton being penalized 5 for tackling the man without the ball. Ellison dove into the line for 3 and on his second buck made 7 and first down. Burleson shot off tackle for 8. Quarter up.

Second Quarter.

On the first play Hartelle slipped through in an off tackle smash and scored a touchdown. A pass in the try for point was grounded. Hartelle 6, Moulton 0.
Hartelle kicked to Hardin, who returned 15. Byars knifed through the Hartelle line for 9. Jones stopped Hardin with a one-yard advance, but it was first down. Sandlin swept end for 8 and Byars struck the line for another first down. Free's buck advanced the ball 2 and Hardin added 5 more in another line smash. Byars and Free, in two more bucks, made Moulton's third successive first down. Byars raced around end for 5, Hardin cut the center of the Hartelle line for 3, but Free fumbled and Ratliff recovered. Hartelle skirted end or 15 and Ellison and Burleson collected 8 in two thrusts at the line.

Ellison then made first down. Ellison broke through Moulton's line for a 10-yard dash. Hartelle and Ellison, in three tries, netted another first down. After Burleson and Hartelle had advanced but 2, Free intercepted a pass on his own 20-yard line and returned 15. A pass from Free to Shelton was good for 6. Hardin advanced 2 and a pass from Hardin to Sims netted 15 as the half ended.

Third Quarter.

Hartelle kicked to Hardin, who fumbled, but recovered. Byars swept end for 4 and Hardin dived through the line for 13 yards, nearly getting away. Time out for Sims. Sandlin skirted end for 9. Free hammered the line for 25 yards, getting away and being hauled down from behind. Thompson stopped Hardin. Byars hit the line for 2. Free hit it for 3. Hardin thrust at the line and a measurement was called for to see whether the distance had been made. After much argument the ball was given Moulton on Hartelle's 10-yard line. Byars made 8 and then went over. Hardin's placement kick was blocked. Hartelle 6, Moulton 6.

Shelton kicked to Burleson, who returned to his own 35-yard line. Hartelle made one yard and then tossed to Johnson, who made 10. Ellison advanced 7 in a line play. Ellison then ripped the line for first down. Burleson failed to gain and Hartelle lost 4 around end. A pass from Hartelle to Ellison placed the ball on Moulton's 15-yard line. Hartelle failed to gain. Ellison advanced 2. Hartelle went around end for 2. Hartelle's attempt at field goal from a difficult angle failed.

Moulton took the ball on her own 20-yard line. Byars hit the line for 2. Thompson spilled Hardin on the lock step. Free went into the line for as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter.

Shelton punted 40 to Hartelle. Hartelle made one in a line buck. Hartelle fumbled and Ellison recovered. Garrison went in for Nelson. Free intercepted a pass, but the play was called back and Hartelle penalized 5 for off-side. Hartelle kicked and a Moulton back fumbled, Thompson recovering in the middle of the field. Hartelle failed, but Ellison made 8. On a split buck Ellison failed to gain. Ellison again failed to add the two yards and Moulton took the ball on downs. Hardin dropped back as if to punt, fumbled a low pass from center, and Thompson picked up the ball and ran for a touch down. During the time, however, the referee's whistle had blown and the play was called back. It was here the squabble which ended the game began.

$10,000 Monthly Paid Out for Ties

The Bond Lumber Company, who own numerous mills in this and adjoining states, are just now receiving large numbers of cross-ties at the Albany yard on West Moulton Street. At this time the company is paying out for wagon ties over $10,000 per month, this going to the farmers of Morgan and Lawrence counties. First class ties which are classed as No. 5, bring $1. This class of ties just a few years ago was selling at 25c. At that time white oak only was taken, whereas now, other kinds of oak timber are accepted and paid for. This is not now the busiest season on the tie yards, because of the fact that many farmers are yet busy in gathering their crops. At the beginning of each new year, and from that time on until the actual work begins in the crop, is usually the busiest time, and largely aids many farmers to secure the necessary things with which to prosecute the work of planting.

KING OF MOTOR FUEL

Woco Pep

MORE MILES-
LESS CARBON

Worth 5 Cents More Per Gallon Than Gasoline ---but doesn't cost it!

No unwarranted price on Woco-Pep—merely the legitimate market price—even though Woco-Pep customers are convinced it is worth 5 cents more per gallon than any other motor fuel on the market. Independent refiners advise us they positively cannot make lower price on gasoline at present price of crude oil without taking heavy losses.

For this reason we are merely maintaining the legitimate price on motor fuel until crude oil is reduced in proportion to the present "squeeze" price on gasoline. That's only fair.

Miss Carlotta Burt, of the Teacher Extension Department, of Florence, met her regular appointment with the teachers of Albany and Decatur at the Decatur High School Building today.

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Albany High School, cleared in round numbers $70 last night from the dinner given on Second Avenue.

The money secured represented the entire in take at the dinner, as the ladies directly interested furnished the food and cooked and served it free of charge.

The Parent-Teachers Association has undertaken to operate a cafeteria at the High School building, where free lunches are served to some of the students each day, and it has also bought a valuable stereopticon projector, with hundreds of slides, for the entertainment and instruction of the students.

MISS CLARKSON SINGS

Last Friday evening a large number of music lovers were delighted and beautifully entertained at the Presbyterian church by Miss Margaret Clarkson of Albany, who rendered a very delightful program.

Miss Clarkson is recognized by music critics as one of the most gifted and highly cultivated vocalists in the state. She came at the invitation of a number of ladies of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches and rendered a program that was of high merit and which displayed the realm of her voice in its richness and power. She was given a most hearty greeting and time after time she had to return in answer to the applause that greeted her numbers. She has been heard in Athens before, but those who had never heard her wonderful voice, were delighted and charmed with her singing. She always meets a warm welcome wherever she goes and it is hoped by those who heard her on her recent appearance here that she will make a return date that they and others who by reason of previous engagements were deprived of the pleasure of hearing her last week may hear her.

Miss Clarkson is a sister of Mrs. Harry L. Homes of this place.—Alabama Courier.

5 PREACHERS ARE RECEIVED ON TRIAL

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 25.—Special.—Advancement of classes and the acceptance on trial of five new preachers featured Friday morning's session of the Alabama conference, in session at the Perry Street Methodist Church.

The session was opened with prayer by the Rev. A. B. Brown following which a short service was held. Secretary Lamar then read the minutes of the Thursday session. Seating of delegates who were not here on the opening day of the Conference were dispensed with and it was found that only two districts had full representation. These were the Opelika and Pensacola districts.

John C. Vickers, of the Andalusia district; George O. Hughes, of the Dothan district; Roy Lee Osborne and Bennett I. Hughes, of the Montgomery district, and Osie B. Childs, of the Opelika district, were admitted to trial, and will be given appointments before the conference closes.

J. Bibb Mills, new superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Alabama, was the principal speaker of the afternoon. He was assisted, however, by Dr. W. B. Crompton and H. H. McNeill, of Marianna, Fla.

Mr. Mills informed his hearers that Alabama has the best prohibition laws of any state in the entire Union, and also surpasses all other states in the enforcement of the law. To back up this statement he read a report made to him by the prohibition director for Alabama, in which was included the information that during the year the department has made 98 arrests for violation of the prohibition laws, seized 40,275 gallons of mash, 250 gallons of wine, 565 stills were destroyed and 759 fermenters were captured and destroyed. "This, Mr. Mills said, shows how effectively the law is being enforced."

The speaker dwelt at length on the fact that, although the Anti-Saloon League and its friends had succeeded in ridding the country of the saloon and had effected the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment, they must continue to fight. According to him, the "same Hellish" liquor traffic that violated all laws while they were licensed is continuing to work and at present there are forty organizations in America whose prime goal is the return of light wine and beer.

Federated Club Session Here One Of
Most Successful Meetings Yet Held

Declaring the eighth annual convention of the federated clubs of the first district to have been the best in the history of the district and one of the best in the entire state, representatives of the various clubs today had returned home, after adjournment of the session Friday afternoon. Adjournment followed a beautifully planned luncheon at the Lyons Hotel, given by the hostess clubs of Albany-Decatur and Hartsville.

The programs throughout the sessions, not only were interesting, but they unfolded the story of what the club women are doing to improve conditions in the state and told of the still serious conditions that need to be improved. Special significance was given to better legislation which warrants the support of the club women of Alabama. Confidence was expressed that the club women of the state will continue to lend a helping hand to and become a vital part of every good work that is launched throughout the state.

Especially strong were the appeals in the address given at the Friday morning session by Miss Mariette Smith, of the state child welfare department; Mrs. John Hornady, who brought a message from Mrs. H. E. Pearce, state chairman of tuberculosis; and Miss Harris, of the Home Demonstration Department of Auburn.

Miss Smith made her hearers feel that a serious responsibility rests on the women of today as regards the welfare of the child, since the solving of the moral and civic and health problems of today establishes a working principle for the building of our moral civic and health structure of tomorrow—that shall stand or fall as our efforts have been successful or a failure.

With 40,000 cases of tuberculosis in our midst, and with the far-reaching and destructive influence that follows in the wake of such appalling definite figures, the club women were impressed with the urgent need of a 100 per cent response to the call of the tuberculosis committee as it launches out upon its campaign of the Christmas "Tuberculosis Seal Sale," which involves, in every individual purchase, an answer to an urgent appeal for help and an indication that there is concerted and cooperative effort to rid our land of this most dreaded disease.

Miss Harris, of the Home Demonstration Department of Auburn, gave an interesting summary of the work in 36 counties of the state that are co-operating with this department in establishing better conditions on the farm and in the home, in the matter of poultry raising, food selection, and general care of the home. Miss Harris pledged the help of her department to any and all counties interested, and begged the women to create an interest in those sections that were as yet not wide awake to the needs of the hour, and to the help that is theirs for the asking.

The local clubs, with Mrs. W. C. Bailey as their president, are to be congratulated on the capable handling of the convention plans and the Twin Cities have every reason to be proud of their club women.

Nervous and Dizzy, Everything Seemed to Worry Me How I Got Well

Larwill, Indiana.—"My back was bad I could not do my washing. I was always tired out and had no ambition, nervous and dizzy, and everything seemed to worry me and I had a awful pain in my right side. I felt badly about four years and could not do my work any more. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I bought a bottle. I tried it and it did so much good that I did so many people good that I began to take it myself. I am feeling fine now and every one tells me they never saw me looking so well. I live on a farm, do all my work, and have three little girls to take care of. I am recommending this medicine to my friends and know it will help them. They use it like I do." — Mrs. H. H. LONG, R. R. 3, Box 7, Larwill, Indiana.

Many women keep about their work when it is a great effort. They are always tired out and have no ambition. When you are in this condition give prompt attention. Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for it is especially adapted to correct such troubles, as it did Mrs. Long.
